Indian fatigue in Canada has reached a critical level, some would say a fire that can no longer be extinguished.

If you think the cops are useless in this video, wait until you see what the government has in store for you down the road..

Sorry I'm a useless cunt unless you're a White going 5 over the speed limit or doing some other trivial misdemeanor.

Typical white cops doing fuck all but cucking, but if they were white dudes you know these cops would be salivating thinking about the tickets and arrest potential

I remember in around 2005 my brother who was 18 at the time was driving home from working at Best Buy in a new Dodge that my father surprised him with, got pulled over in Port Moody BC driving home, and when he reached over to get his license the white cop pulled a gun on my white brother... For simply getting his license... Not speeding not breaking the law... But today, these guys go unchecked. I hate racism but/and I am DONE with this. I feel unsafe driving to work on highways. I never go on highways with my kids. The danger is unparalleled. I am DONE.

Sounds like police fatigue is at an all time high too.

Burn this into your memory because if the government introduces its hate crime legislation, it will be weaponized such that the cops would be cuffing the guy taking this video for the crime of noticing.

Hoo boy.

Good for him. Cops are more scared of a "dats racist" report than another Humboldt incident.

People are just going to start lashing out in the only ways they can, maybe that's the point of anarcho tyranny.

The fury and exasperation in that man's voice as the police refuse to do their jobs... I bet he has kids who are driving on those highways. My biggest fear is one of these reckless Indians plowing into them. I'd like to thank that man.

Well indians had Canada fatigue hit them a couple of years ago after for 3 decades you gave safe haven for terrorists and every person that was escaping from law in India.

So as an Indian from India, I'm just searching for my popcorn 😂

It's just a crazed lunatic who sounds like he's had too much to drink screaming at some guys because he was too impatient to wait a few mins. Doubt it's representative of anything happening in Canada.

Only takeaway for me is how much more professional their police are than ours

If you weren't screaming in their face they may actually hear the message you're trying to communicate but instead you come off crazy sir, despite whether or not your argument is valid... sounding smart goes along way. At least try it.

I guarantee that cop is not qualified to inspect logbooks. It is a specialty training thing he might have to call in a CVSA guy in for.
