They are parked in the fire lane, chimps blaring music and dancing outside of the car. Got mad at me when I walked by with visible disgust. Proceeded to chimp out through the entire store. Usual suspects. +100 fatigue.

Hey @kroger one of your employees was parked in the fire lane in front of the store blasting music. When a customer asked them to get out of the fire lane and turn down the music, your employee started to follow the customer around and harass and threaten him. I believe this incident occurred at a Clarksville, Tennessee location.

Fire this thug.

What in the deep state, manipulating psyop, fabricated divisiveness, and manufactured nonsense is going on here?

Seems fake. Most of the white dudes that threw that word around, even in school, weren't well liked by ANYONE and quit using it after being taught a lesson or two

You're gonna end up on the news 📰

Rage baiting people and then brandishing your weapon cause you don't wanna get beat up lol

It's actually insane what clout does to people... a minuscule following and they'll do anything for some clicks 😂

This is the type of Low IQ people the internet creates. You can tell this dude is unemployed but worked at GameStop for 10 years. Running around antagonizing people should end with an ass whooping. You literally have nigga behavior yourself.

The man recording is a coward because he obviously brandished a firearm but would draw down.

The other two are just ignorant because they let a stranger antagonize them.

It's the dead of night, why would you even care if someone is idle (not parked, the car was on) in the fire lane.

Anyone with even a smidgen of brain power can see this was just antagonistic.

Please keep doing this. I want a new video every week! Humans attract what they desire and THIS guy wants a "gunfight" with random Black people. You know you can pray to specific demons if you crave violent encounters?
