ARIL Argentina, Wildfires, and the Return of Plan Andinia

Argentina is burning.

Massive wildfires are tearing through Patagonia, displacing communities and destroying protected land. As the fires spread, local residents have begun reporting something unsettling: foreign individuals caught allegedly setting fires, with multiple reports pointing to Israelis.

Authorities say investigations are ongoing.

Patagonia is not just wilderness, it is one of the most resource-rich, sparsely populated regions on Earth:

- Freshwater reserves
- Fertile land
- Strategic geography
- Low population density

It is also a region that has long attracted foreign interest, legal and otherwise. This brings up a term many Argentines know well: Plan Andinia.

Plan Andinia refers to a mid-20th-century geopolitical concept, discussed in Argentine military and intelligence circles, proposing the establishment of a Jewish state or autonomous zone in Patagonia under certain conditions.

Whether speculative or strategic, it was real enough to be studied, debated, and feared. Plan Andinia was never implemented. But ideas do not need to be implemented to shape behavior. They need only to justify long-term positioning.

Land acquisition, NGO influence, tourism corridors, dual citizenship flows, security cooperation these are far more common tools than tanks.

Argentina's south has seen:

- Large-scale foreign land purchases
- Restricted-access estates
- Private conservation zones with opaque governance
- Foreign security personnel operating under civilian cover

Wildfires introduce a new variable that Israelis will love.... forced displacement. Throughout history, environmental destruction has often preceded land reorganization.

Not because fires prove intent but because chaos creates opportunity:

- Emergency powers
- Property transfers
- International "assistance"
- Reframing of sovereignty as "management"

There are credible reports of Israelis caught setting fires on the hiking trails of Patagonia. In 2011, an Israeli was caught setting a fire that burned 17,000 acres of Chilean Patagonia.

When communities feel their land is being taken, reshaped, or destabilized without consent, they remember history.

Argentina has its own history with foreign interference, IMF restructuring, and externally imposed "solutions." In that context, Patagonia is not peripheral. It is strategic. And Plan Andinia persists not as a plan, but as a symbol of vulnerability.

Wildfires should unite a country in defense of its land, not silence discussion.

History doesn't repeat verbatim but it rhymes, especially when land is burning.

And everything is a conspiracy.... until it isn't....

"South America is being prepared to be occupied. Our continent must say a resounding 'No!'"

In it's June 18,2025 edition, Diario UNO, a regional Argentine newspaper, published this OpEd by Sister Milagros Juárez. In it she writes:

Plan Andinia

Until years ago, it was said that the "Andinia Plan" was a crazy, anti-Semitic conspiracy theory. But after events promoted by Milei, it is clear that it was not fiction, but a reality that endangers South America, since it would leave us, the neighboring countries, in the future in the situation of Iran or Syria, an imminent war zone, after the creation of a "new Israel" in Patagonia

The very old Andinia Plan essentially maintains that, prior to the creation of the Zionist and illegitimate state of Israel in the Middle East, the other option for the UN to send them as refugees after WWII was Argentina, but that area, where occupied Palestine is today, won. But Argentina remained as a second option to establish a Jewish state if something went wrong in Palestine. Do you connect the dots?

Following the assumption of the presidency of Javier Milei, a convert to Judaism, in accordance with the Andinia Plan, there was a massive acquisition of land in Patagonia by Israeli businessmen at rock-bottom prices, as well as various undervalued resources and direct flights from Tel Aviv. These flights, however, could not (for now) touch an area that the Malvinas veterans had saved through legal means.

The final straw came last Friday, when, just hours before Israel attacked Iran, Milei posed with Netanyahu. Bilateral agreements also came into effect so that Jews who move to Argentina can have their social assistance and insurance benefits recognized. Why, hours before the attack, did Milei put the finishing touches on what appears to be a mass exodus, should Israel eventually lose a war against Iran?

South America is being prepared to be occupied. Our continent must say a resounding "No!" We are Christians, we speak Spanish, we must not receive any kind of exodus from another continent. We have not yet recovered from the Venezuelan exodus.

I ask the Heavenly Father to give the indigenous leaders of South America and all the people the strength not to let ourselves be invaded like Palestine. We saw the fate that befell them for being trusting. We have families to protect, an ancient heritage that must not disappear, because Zionism destroys everything it touches. I leave this in the name of Jesus Christ, amen

The Andinia Plan is a Jewish initiative to dismember Patagonia from Argentina and Chile and create another Jewish state there. This theory, which is relatively recent, is based on the idea proposed by Theodor Herzl (1882) in his book The Jewish State (Der Judenstaat). He discussed the possibility of buying land either in Palestine or in Argentina for the creation of a Jewish State. The plan saw light at the International Zionist Congress in Basel, Switzerland in 1897.

It is believed that the creation of this new Jewish State in Patagonian territory would be carried out thanks to the same methods used for the creation of the State of Israel in Palestine.

The beginning of this story dates back to 1882, when the Andinia Plan was formulated and launched in 1887 on the occasion of the World Jewish Congress in Basel, where the proposals of Leon Pinsker (Self-emancipation) and Teodoro Herzl (The Jewish State) were approved.

To create a Jewish state in America, preferably in Argentina, the following actions were undertaken:

1. Mass immigration of Jews to Argentina.
2. Purchase of large tracts of land by the Jewish Company Association Colonization, with center in London
3. Constitution of large public limited companies, such as Bemberg, Dreyfus, Dunge and Born, etc., which currently own large extensions.

An Islamic Channel in the UK was FINED for Airing a Documentary on Plan Andinia!!

In February 2021, the UK-based Islam Channel aired an hour-long documentary titled "The Andinia Plan."

The film alleged that Israel and Zionist organizations were pursuing a long-term plan to create a second Jewish state in Patagonia, spanning parts of southern Argentina and Chile.

In 2024–2025, the UK broadcasting regulator Ofcom fined the channel £40,000, ruling that the program amounted to antisemitic hate speech and promoted an unsubstantiated conspiracy theory.

The Islam Channel documentary framed the theory as possibly "re-emerging" in modern form, which Ofcom ruled crossed the line from analysis into collective suspicion of Jews as a group.

They ruled that the documentary presented conspiracy as fact, implied collective Jewish intent, lacked historical context or rebuttal, and encouraged suspicion toward Jews as Jews.

That is why it met the UK's ridiculous definition of hate speech. Yet another topic we aren't allowed to discuss?

Six months ago, Argentines on Reddit discussed an influx of Israelis into the region, establishing hostels and other sites.

Many of them have made (very low) offers to buy land which were declined.... months later a fire erupted. After an area is cleared by wildfire it stops being protected native forest and can be approved for development by the Milei government.

Spooky stuff.

IL 🔥 ARNEW SUBSTACK!!!

Full deep dive: Unmasking the Flames: Israel's Shadow Over Patagonia and Milei's Betrayal of Argentina From conspiracy to reality? While Patagonia burns, the fires reveal a darker pattern: gutted fire agencies, post-burn land laws weakened for "development," Zionist-linked tycoons snapping up vast estates with private armies, water deals to Mekorot, symbolic Star-of-David construction signs in the wilderness, Netanyahu poring over Patagonia maps with Milei, and the long-denied Plan Andinia looking less like myth and more like a roadmap.

Milei's chainsaw austerity left the south defenseless. Now the flames clear the way, sovereignty slips away, and locals pay the price.

Is this coincidence, or something more?

The Jewish Company Association Colonization's key figure was Baron Maurice de Hirsch who funded Jewish colonies in Argentina in the 1890s. It began the expansion of Jews in Argentina and influence leading to today's "Isaac Accords" for Jewish domination of all of South America.
