If you think we're giving up our guns now because your side won't stop killing us, you're deluded. Piss all the way off.

The scourge of gun violence and political violence must end.

The shooting of Charlie Kirk is the latest incident of this chaos and it must stop. We cannot go down this road.

There is no place for it in America and we wish for his recovery.

This isn't "gun violence." It's "leftist violence" because you hyperbolic asshats won't stop screaming that everything you dislike is Hitler.

Also -- we've all been "cool" for 15-20 years now, when Occupy raped people in tents, when jackboots were sent to bully tea partiers, when ballfields of lawmakers were shot, when a SCOTUS justice was targeted, when POTUS was shot, so if your response is to lecture our righteous rage, show yourself out.

I'd argue, if today proved anything, it's that we should all be conceal carry gun owners.

Charlie Kirk was assassinated by a professional operative working with the deep state lunatics Please look at the video again look at the security guy behind him with the sun glasses , wearing a short sleeve dark shirt, the minute he gave a hand & arm gesture Charlie was shot I felt when I watched the video as he backed up from Charlie and he gave the signal
