I have never seen X use this label before.

The violence is against ToS but the message is SO revealing that they kept it visible. 🤖

Have you heard of the X doctor? @ChooseGoodKarma built a badass website that scrubs your timeline and highlights posts that are hurting your reach according to the algorithm. I deleted 200+ posts that I didn't realize were "against" the algo - you should check it out fr.

Interesting...X has sensed countless accounts for reporting on the israeli crimes against humanity. If this approach preserve informations, I'm all for it. But I'm probably too optimistic.

Here is the full read... these demons are amongst us.

the blood of our sons and the security of our citizens are not forfeit. All of Lebanon must burn. Our supreme duty is to protect the citizens of Israel and the soldiers of the IDF, and this commitment takes precedence over every other consideration.

I told the Prime Minister, even in our private meetings: For every tear of an Israeli mother, a thousand Lebanese mothers must weep.

Enough with the ping-pong. In the Middle East, you don't win with measured responses and restraint—you need to go berserk. To obliterate. To crush the terror.

This isn't helping I*rael. Leaving it visible on the platform is the right decision. Shouldn't cover-up their mindset.

Or does the moderating team feel as though the message is so vitally important it needs to stay up? I'm not a fan of this, and it needs more explanation. @grok, why is the post allowed to remain after clearly violating policy and advocating for the murder if an entire country?

I remember when they started doing this. It started in the Dorsey era.

It was intended for, say, racist stuff that went against the guidelines but also were stupid takes that made the person who posted them look bad.

They didn't want mass censorship to prevent dumb racists from making all racists look bad.

The granularity of the censorship regime leftists established between 2016 and 2023 was absolutely sinister.

Because it is in our best interest to know what these people think about others. Because maybe they'll wake up and realize these people only care about one group of people they're try, that's it, everyone else is used. I don't care if they pay you well. They're still using you
