Deeply distressing news from Australia.

The United Kingdom sends our thoughts and condolences to everyone affected by the appalling attack in Bondi beach.

I'm being kept updated on the developing situation.

Terrible news from Sydney Australia , my dear friend, chabad rabbi, Eli Shalnger, is among the victims.
Tonight, millions of Hanukkah lights will shine in his memory and the memory of all the holy souls in Sydney.
Light as many candles as you can, together, we push back the darkness.

Focusing on the attacker may divert attention from victims, security failures, and systemic issues that allowed the attack to happen.

Priority should stay with the victims, their families, and the people affected on the ground. Facts are still emerging, and it's important not to jump to conclusions while authorities investigate and secure the situation.

Here is yet another coward head of state who totally ignores the fact that this was not a random shooting but a deliberate attack against more than 2,000 Jews who gathered in Bondi Beach, Sydney Australia au to light candles for this first night of Chanukah. This was a peaceful event which was meant to commemorate our holiday! Shame on you!

The poster features the title 'CHANUKAH BY THE SEA' in large, stylized letters with lit candles above the 'H'. Logos for Chabad of Bondi, Chabad for Israeli's Ohel Avraham Synagogue Sydney, and Waverley Council are present. The event is on Sunday, 14 Dec at 5:00 PM, with free admission. Activities include live entertainment, music, games, and a grand menorah lighting. A QR code and booking link are at the bottom.

Your mealy-mouthed statement on the terrorist massacre at Bondi Beach is a disgrace, a cowardly evasion that insults the victims and exposes your spineless leadership on antisemitism. You speak of “distressing news” and “appalling attack”, yet you deliberately omit the glaring truth: this was a targeted slaughter of Jews celebrating Hanukkah, the Festival of Lights, gunned down in cold blood on a beach in Sydney. No mention of the Jewish community, no acknowledgment of the antisemitic hatred that fuelled it, nothing but bland platitudes while families mourn their dead.

This is precisely what “globalise the intifada” looks like, the poisonous slogan chanted by extremists who seek to export terror and hatred worldwide, and your silence enables it. You’ve bent over backwards to appease those crowds in Britain, ignoring the rising tide of Jew-hatred on the streets, and now innocent lives are lost abroad in the same vile spirit. Where is your condemnation of the ideology behind this? Where is your solidarity with Jews facing genocide calls in the 21st century?

Step up, Prime Minister, or step aside. The Jewish people, and all who value decency, deserve better than your empty words.

Not "thoughts and prayers" this time you've changed to "thoughts and condolences".

That'll really stick it to the Muslims. Way to flex your muscles.

We never gave permission for them to be here. We always expressed our dislike of their presence here. We want them gone now.

Thoughts and prayers are a start, but this Bondi horror shows need real action against rising antisemitism worldwide—stronger borders, better intel sharing between allies like UK and Oz. Heartbreaking during Hanukkah. Stay vigilant, everyone.
