Secondary trauma as it relates sexual assault can bring survivors back in time to their own assault. It brings it into the present no matter how fresh or distant the event. With appropriate support or practiced coping skill set equilibrium can be restored. S/A trauma is a beast.

pathetic theatrics... they've enable one of epstein best friends, and clients, into being the president of the united states... they have no ground to be empathetic to victims when they're enabling one of the abusers.

While it’s great to see support for releasing the Epstein files, let’s not rush to call it a “coverup” without evidence. Mace’s emotional response shows how deeply this issue resonates. Transparency is key, but let’s focus on facts over speculation.

If it is this bad, why have there been no arrest. If she feels like this, just think how the victims feel, and they have to live the rest of their lives reliving their nightmares. This is very sad.
