We don't need a bill moron. It's already being paid for with zero tax dollars. Are you stupid?

Rand is an absolute sellout. Between this and taking AIPAC money I don't care if he goes. Vote him out. He is nothing like his father.

Until the remaining 3 million Epstein files are released (98% of the total file data), I will assume ballroom loosely translates to "Nuevo Saint James".

Our system of government is broken beyond belief. It's like regular citizens are ignored or don't exist at all and your only purpose is to enrich yourselves. Senator you should know better.

Yep, no money to provide health insurance but now we suddenly have $400 million to build a ballroom that we were promised would be built by private donations. Kids get shot in schools and Republicans offer thoughts and prayers.

A gunman fires shots no where near the president and we suddenly have to spend $400M on a ballroom.

Funny how Republicans won't fund schools, healthcare, or infrastructure—but suddenly there's money for a ballroom.

Oh, yah, a ballroom will totally deter an assassin 🤔 As if assassins just hang out at one highly secured ballroom waiting to assassinate people 😏 Dumbest logic ever 🙄 I guess Charlie Kirk would be alive today if every event he held was in the White House Ballroom ✓ Please, just shut up, then kindly explain why the Vice-President and others were whisked away by security while the President sat out in the open at a table until 10 seconds afterwards...?

Answer that please ☐
