Sam Harris says:

We don't want mass Muslim immigration. You were generous to Jews and opened your arms to us when we were in need. You gave us what was yours. Ever since, we've aggressively fought to give what's yours to everyone else. That makes *us* generous.

Harris doesn't say:

Here are a multitude of examples of Jews making strenuous efforts to stop mass Muslim immigration.

Or:

Here's why the Jewish mayor of Minneapolis - who capers about dancing with Somalis while protecting fraudsters and criminals among them from deportation - reflects the putative collective desire of Jews not to import 'Islamists'.

It's definitely the Qataris:

The Hebrew Immigrant Aid Society (HIAS) was founded in New York City in the 1880s by the Russian Jewish community of New York in response to the influx of Russian Jewish immigrants fleeing the pogroms in the Pale of Settlement in Russia and Eastern Europe. In 1889, a shelter which was used to house many of the immigrants adopted the name "Hebrew Sheltering House Association." This organization merged with HIAS in 1909 and by 1914, had branches operating in Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, D.C. The Boston office of HIAS was chartered in 1904 under the leadership of Harris Poonru, Hyman Pihl, Abraham Alpert, Meyer Bloomfield, Max Wyzanski and Samuel L. Bailin. The Boston HIAS operated autonomously from the national office in New York, even after their merger in 1916. HIAS ensured that Jewish immigrants had access to holiday and religious services and kosher food; provided shelter and social services; and assisted immigrants with finding employment and schools, often on short notice. This collection contains the individual case files of immigrants who received assistance from the Boston office of HIAS, ship manifests, tracer correspondence, scrapbooks, passenger lists and photographs. Some later individual case files remain restricted (those dated after 1960) and researchers will require permission from the archivist of AJHS New England Archives in order to view them.

HIAS Congratulates Board Member Alejandro Mayorkas on DHS Nomination

Nov 23, 2020

HIAS congratulates Board Member Alejandro Mayorkas on being named by President-Elect Joe Biden to be the next secretary of the Department of Homeland Security. If confirmed, Mayorkas would be the first Latino to head the department that implements and manages U.S. immigration policies.

A Cuban-born immigrant who arrived in the United States with his parents as a refugee, Mayorkas served as deputy secretary of Homeland Security from 2003 to 2006 and was director of the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services during President Obama's first term. Mayorkas was also a primary architect of the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals, or DACA, program.

"We at HIAS have been so blessed to have AJ Mayorkas on our board of directors, and are thrilled to have him nominated to be the next Secretary of Homeland Security," said HIAS President and CEO Hava Hartfield. "AJ has consistently demonstrated that he is not only a strong and highly respected leader but an empathetic one who knows the heart of the stranger, as the child of a Holocaust survivor, an immigrant, and as a refugee and immigrant himself. AJ is uniquely suited to rebuild public trust in the Department of Homeland Security as he knows that America is at its greatest when we build bridges, not walls."

"When I was very young, the United States provided my family and me a place of refuge." Mayorkas tweeted just after being named. "Now, I have been nominated to be the DHS Secretary and oversee the protection of all Americans and those who flee persecution in search of a better life for themselves and their loved ones."

Sam Harris says they don't have enough numbers to create refugees.

Candace already gave the answer yesterday: Israel rarely does it alone, they outsource it.

Nigeria? A covert op... until declassified Israeli files exposed it.

Somalia? Quiet... until Ethiopia revealed the Israel-backed proxy fueling the civil war.

Syria? We were smeared as "antisemites" for saying Israel aided ISIS — until the IDF Chief of Staff himself confirmed it in 2019.

All of it documented in Israel's own sources and detailed here:
phantompain1984.substack.com...

The wild part?

You can cite their own documents and still get called "antisemite."
