Ken Paxton just gave an Epstein-style deal to a pedophile.

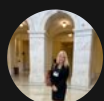

Paxton released Adam Hoffman — an admitted child rapist — back on our streets after Paxton’s rich lawyer friend got involved.

The Epstein Class has no place in Texas. Ken Paxton has no place in the US Senate.

More of this! Make the R’s realize they are the supporters and enablers of the pedophiles, and sexual abusers, they claim to hate. Christians shouldn’t vote for criminal pedophiles who repeatedly prey on innocent children.

Adam Hoffman admitted at his guilty plea hearing that he “did then and there, with the intent to arouse or gratify my sexual desire, touch genitals of [the victim, identified by initials] ... and I acted without the complainant’s consent.”

Inside Ken Paxton’s plea deal for a child sex abuse case

Critics are pointing to two other serious felony cases that the attorney general’s prosecutors took to trial that ended in mistrials and, eventually, plea deals.

Also there's also the:

- 1) securities fraud
- 2) impeachment by his own party
- 3) fbi whistleblower complaints for bribery, corruption, and abuse of office
- 4) cheated on his wife

Can't imagine what other awful things he's done and got away with if this much is public

All around, an awful person

The victim's family accepted the deal partly because the child did not want to testify again. The victim and mother reportedly gave Hoffman a Bible with a forgiveness note. Ken isn't in the Epstein files you idiot so trying to tie him to that is really loser stupid. 🙄

You lie about everything, don't you? No wonder you're a Democrat.

The truth:

Hoffman had a hung jury, and the victim declined to testify again. Staff in Paxton's office (which took over the recused local case) offered a deal reducing charges to two Class A misdemeanors with a 60-day sentence and no sex offender registration.

His staff did the best they could on a bungled case from another jurisdiction, and you try to hammer Paxton for it?

Pathetic.
