Slovak MEP Milan Mazurek in the European Parliament:

"We constantly hear in this room how Black lives matter, how Jewish lives matter, how Palestinian lives matter and I completely agree with you. I have no problem with you saying that.

But I will say something that many of you will have a problem with, and I will say it loudly and openly: White Lives Matter! Because right now, White people are the most hated group in the whole world, everything is allowed against White people, you can openly spread hatred and racism against White people. You can openly call for violence against White people and nobody will ban you from social media networks, nobody will prosecute you or put you in jail for that.

But if you say 'White Lives Matter,' they will try to destroy you.

White lives are a world wide minority. Less than 10% of the population.
