I went through my 16-year-old's phone and found a flood of messages that reveal just how far even private Christian schools have fallen, honestly, maybe worse than public ones. One girl called my son "Scooby Jew" and told him to "go in the gas chambers," thinking it was funny. Others were sending pro-Hitler memes and the most vile rhetoric imaginable.

I'm not paying over $15,000 a year to lose my son's soul. I pulled him out last week and from here on, his studies will look completely different. He'll learn the truth about the threat of Islam, the history of Israel, the lies and deception shaping this world and how all of it affects us right here in America.

Pray for these kids...this generation has become shockingly pro-Nazi and pro-Hitler and they don't even realize the darkness they're embracing.

Day 1 of homeschooling. Feeling a little lost but trusting God to guide me.

Holy cow.

I heard Savannah Christly on the @WillCainShow yesterday - it sounds like her little sister's private school has real issues as well.

In middle school, My son called his black friend the N word. I stopped in my tracks & then the friend replied. 'Don't worry, Mrs.Carol, Bill (my son) is an N too'. They laughed hysterically & carried on with their lunch. Scooby Jew is 16? Let your practically adult son alone.

Were they your son's friends? That's how boys say "I love you". Kind of like how women say "I want you to die" by saying "You look so pretty today!"

The only reason Jews send their kids to Christian schools is to be subversive. It appears mom discovered people aren't falling for it anymore.

What an incredible way to ruin your sons life.

In a normal schooling environment the girl would've called him that and he could've called her a whore, ugly, etc.

He would've stood up for himself and they might've even become friends turning insults into banter.

Instead mommy had to step in and humiliate her son showing everyone he can't stand up for himself all the while reinforcing the Jewish stereotypes of being too sensitive and using guilt to manipulate people.

Can't we let kids be kids?

How can one not become pro hitler when you listen to his speeches and see what he accomplished. He saved a nation and made it rise from the ashes to become the most technological advanced nation on the planet.

One of the most tragic and severe cases of "hoses mad" seen in perhaps the entire year

Karen gets bent out of shape over teenage guys joking around, goes super saiyan 3, and fucks up her son's entire life

The karen mind could never comprehend the whimsical nature of a Free Man

You're lucky your son didn't grow up back in the Xbox 360 days, you'd have locked him away in a closet and wrapped your house in a giant bubble to protect him.

Good way to ruin your son's life.
